GREAT MUSIC MUST SHINE.

We want to take you on a new musical adventure to celebrate The King's Singers' 50th birthday. It's an adventure that gives thanks for all the music that's defined our first fifty years, inspired by the unique maverick spirit that guided the original six King's Singers to keep every performance as fresh and varied as possible. We still share their mission today: the future of music deserves to shine as brightly as it can. This is about savouring the amazing diversity of music and musicians in our world today, holding up composers, songwriters and singers of all kinds side by side to create something truly special.

Come and join us for the ride.
